SECT. 1. A police court is hereby established in the city of Roxbury, to consist of one competent and discreet person, to be appointed and commissioned by the governor, pursuant to the constitution, as standing justice.

SECT. 2. The said court shall have original and exclusive jurisdiction over all crimes, offences and misdemeanors committed within said city of Roxbury whereof justices of the peace now have or may hereafter have jurisdiction; also of all suits and actions which may now or at any time hereafter be heard, tried and determined before any justice of the peace in the county of Norfolk, whenever all the parties shall reside in Roxbury, and service of the writ shall be had on the defendant in said county; but the jurisdiction of the court of common pleas shall not be affected by this act. The said court shall have original and concurrent jurisdiction, with justices of the peace, in said county of Norfolk, over all crimes, offences and misdemeanors, whereof justices of the peace within said county now have or may have jurisdiction; also of all suits and actions within the jurisdiction of any justice of the peace within the county of Norfolk.

SECT. 3. An appeal shall be allowed from all judgments of said police court in like manner and to the same extent that appeals are now allowed by law from judgments of justices of the peace; and the justice of said police court shall not be or act as counsel for any party in any cause which may be pending in said court, or which shall have been heard, tried or examined therein.

SECT. 4. The justice of said court shall receive an annual salary of not less than one thousand dollars, the amount of which, if above that sum, shall be determined not oftener than once in each year by the concurrent vote of the city council of said city; and said salary shall be paid in equal quarterly payments out of the treasury of said city, and shall be in full for all services which he is or may hereafter be required or authorized to perform as said justice.

SECT. 5. A court shall be held by said justice at some suitable place in said city of Roxbury, to be provided at the expense of said city, on every day of the week, Sundays, Christmas, the Fourth of July, and public days of Thanksgiving and Fast excepted, at nine of the clock in the forenoon, and as much oftener as may be necessary, to take cognizance of crimes, offences and misdemeanors; and on one day in each week, to be appointed and made known by said justice for the entry and trial of civil actions. And said justice may adjourn said court as justices of the peace may now adjourn the same hearings or trials, and he shall from time to time establish all necessary rules for the orderly and uniform conducting of the business of the court.

SECT. 6. The justice of said court shall keep a fair record of all proceedings in said court, and shall make return to the several courts of all legal processes and of his doings therein in the same manner as justices of the peace are now by law required to do; and he shall also annually in the month of December, exhibit to the city council of said city of Roxbury a true and faithful statement of all moneys received by him as fees.

SECT. 7. All fines and forfeitures and all costs in criminal prosecutions in said court shall be received by said justice, and shall be by him accounted for and paid over to the same persons in the same manner and under the same penalties as are by law prescribed in the case of justices of the peace. SECT. 8. All fees and charges of said justice, both in civil and criminal proceedings, shall be received by him, and by him accounted for and paid to the treasurer of said city of Roxbury, quarterly.

And said special justices shall be paid for the services as performed by them, out of the salary of the standing justice, such sum as the standing justice would be entitled to for the same service.

SECT. 11. All suits, actions and prosecutions, which shall be pending within said city of Roxbury before any justice of the peace when this act shall take effect, shall be heard and determined as though this act had not passed.

SECT. 12. The governor shall have power, by and with the advice and consent of the council, to appoint said standing and special justices at any time after receiving notice of the acceptance of this act by the city council of Roxbury.

SECT. 13. The city council of Roxbury may, whenever the business of said court shall, in the judgment of said council, require it, elect, by concurrent vote, a suitable person to act as clerk of said court. Such clerk, when determined on, shall be chosen annually, and shall be sworn to the faithful performance of the duties of his office, and shall give bond to the city of Roxbury in such sum as the mayor and aldermen of said city shall from time to time determine, with surety or sureties to the acceptance of the city treasurer, with condition for the faithful performance of the duties of his office. Said clerk shall not be retained or employed as counsel or attorney in any suit, complaint, or other proceeding whatever before said court, nor in any which shall have been heard and tried or examined therein. Said clerk, when chosen, shall perform all the duties required of said standing justice by sections six, seven and eight of this act. In case of the death or absence of said clerk after he shall have been chosen, the court shall appoint a clerk pro tempore, who shall act until the standing clerk shall resume the duties of his office, or another shall be chosen, as herein provided; said clerk pro tempore shall receive the same rate of compensation for his services as the standing clerk, to be paid out of the salary of said standing clerk. Said standing clerk shall receive in full compensation for all his services as clerk, except for certificates and copies of papers and proceedings of said court, such sum, annually, as shall be annually fixed upon by concurrent vote of the city council; and said salary shall be paid quarterly from the treasury of the city of Roxbury.

VII. The above rules and orders of business shall be observed in all cases, unless suspended by a vote of two-thirds of the members present for a specific purpose.

RULES AND ORDERS

OF THE

COMMON COUNCIL.

Rights and Duties of the President.

SECT. 1. The President shall take the chair at the hour to which the Council shall have adjourned; shall call the members to order, and, on the appearance of a quorum, shall cause the minutes of the preceding meeting to be read, and proceed to business. In the absence of the President, any member present can call the Council to order, and preside until a President pro tempore shall be chosen by ballot. If, upon a ballot for President pro tempore, no member shall receive a majority of votes, the Council shall proceed to a second ballot, in which a plurality of votes shall prevail.

SECT. 2. He shall preserve order and decorum; he may speak to points of order in preference to other members; and shall decide all questions of order, subject to an appeal to the Council, on motion of any member regularly seconded.

SECT. 3. He shall declare all votes; but if any member doubt the vote, the President, without further debate upon the question, shall require the members voting in the affirmative and negative, to rise and stand until they are counted, and he shall declare the result; but no decision shall be declared, unless a quorum of the Council shall have voted.

SECT. 4. He shall rise to address the Council, or to put a question, but may read sitting.

SECT. 5. The President may call any member to the chair; provided such substitution shall not continue longer than one evening. But the President may state facts, and give his opinion on questions of order without leaving his place.

SECT. 6. On all questions and motions, the President shall take the sense of the Council by yeas and nays, provided one-third of the members present shall so require.

SECT. 7. In all cases the President may vote.

SECT. 8. He shall propound all questions in the order in which they are moved, unless the subsequent motion shall be previous in its nature; except that in naming sums and fixing times, the largest sum and longest time shall be put first.

SECT. 9. After a motion is stated by the President, it shall be disposed of by vote of the Council, unless the mover withdraw it before a decision or amendment.

SECT. 10. SECT. 11. He shall consider a motion to adjourn as always first in order; and that motion and the motion to lay on the table, or to take from the table, shall be decided without debate.

SECT. 12. He shall put the previous question in the fol-

When a member is called to order, he shall immediately sit down, unless permitted to explain, and the Council, if appealed to, shall decide on the case without debate; and if the decision is against the member, he shall not be permitted to speak, unless by way of excuse for the same, until he has made satisfaction.

SECT. 27. No standing rule or order of the Council shall be suspended, unless three-fourths of the members present shall consent thereto; nor shall any rule or order be repealed or amended, without one day's notice being given of the motion therefor, nor unless a majority of the whole Council shall concur therein.

SECT. 28. Every member shall take notice of the day and hour to which the Council may stand adjourned, and shall give his punctual attendance accordingly.

SECT. 29. No member shall be obliged to be on more than three standing committees at the same time, nor to be chairman of more than one.

SECT. 34. When Committees of the Council, chosen by ballot, or Committees consisting of one member from each ward, have been appointed or elected, whether joint or otherwise, the first meeting thereof shall be notified by the Clerk, by direction of the President, and they shall organize by the choice of Chairman, and report to the Council; and when Committees, other than those above specified, are nominated by the President, the person first named shall be Chairman, and in case of the absence of the Chairman, the Committee shall have power to appoint a Chairman pro tem.

SECT. 35. All messages to the Mayor and Aldermen, shall be drawn up by the Clerk and sent by the Messenger.

SECT. 36. All ordinances, resolutions and orders shall have two several readings before they shall be finally passed by this Council; and all ordinances, after being so passed, shall be enrolled.

SECT. 41. All salary officers shall be voted for by written ballot.

SECT. 42. It shall be the duty of all Standing Committees of the Council, to keep records of all their doings in books provided for that purpose by the Clerk; and it shall be the duty of the Clerk to attend the meetings of said Committees, and make said records when requested so to do.

SECT. 43. No meeting of any Committee shall be called upon less notice than twenty-four hours.

SECT. 44.
